Providing philanthropic support to Midland Memorial Hospital since 1945

Alsup Family Endowment Fund Established In Honor of James M. Alsup, Midland Memorial Foundation Board of Governor

Midland Memorial Foundation was delighted to receive a gift in the amount of $100,000 from the Lynch, Chappell & Alsup fund, established by its shareholders, at Permian Basin Area Foundation. The gift was made in honor of the retirement of attorney Jim Alsup on June 30, 2016. Understanding the significance an endowment fund holds for the future of Midland Memorial Hospital and Jim and Sandy's passion for philanthropy, the Alsup Family Endowment Fund was created through this generous donation. Once matured, the unrestricted Alsup Family Endowment Fund will contribute to the annual endowment gift from the foundation to Midland Memorial Hospital.

Jim married the love of his life, Sandy, on December 29, 1963, in Plano, Texas. Shortly after, the Alsups made Midland their home, and Jim began practicing law for the City of Midland. From 1967 forward, Jim has practiced law for the firm that bears his name, Lynch, Chappell & Alsup, P.C. He has been a strong leader of the firm, serving as its Managing Partner/President for decades.

Sandy, a registered nurse, worked as an operating room nurse at Midland Memorial Hospital for many years. The Alsups

“The shareholders of Lynch, Chappell & Alsup, P.C. are directing this gift to the hospital foundation to honor Jim Alsup upon his retirement from the active practice of law and in recognition of his passion for philanthropy and commitment to community service.”

welcomed their youngest son, Jeff, at MMH, along with two of their five grandchildren. In addition, Jim and Sandy's oldest son, Devin, has served on the foundation's Memorial Forum, a group of young, emerging leaders that focuses on the concerns of healthcare in the Midland community. Devin is currently serving on the MMH Board of Trustees.

As a dedicated and inspiring leader of the Midland community, Jim was selected to serve on the Midland Memorial Hospital Board of Trustees in 1987, and was elected to serve as the chairman of the committee in 1990. In 2010, Jim accepted the appointment to the Midland Memorial Foundation Board of Governors. He currently serves as the chairman of the Board of Governors' Nominating Committee, and also serves on the Board of Governors' Bylaws Committee.

Jim's active involvement on the hospital and foundation boards demonstrates his dedication to continually build a stronger community. Midland Memorial Foundation is extremely grateful for the Alsup's support of the MMF Endowment Fund, the Campaign for Tomorrow Building Fund, in addition to many others. For decades, the Alsup family has consciously made MMH's ability to provide quality healthcare a priority in their lives, and for this we will always be grateful.

Midland Memorial Foundation and Midland Memorial Hospital join together in thanking the shareholders of Lynch, Chappell & Alsup, P.C. for their generous donation in establishing the Alsup Family Endowment Fund. Their gift will help to ensure that quality healthcare will be available at Midland Memorial Hospital for generations to come.

James H. Purvis Endowment Fund

Midland Memorial Foundation was honored on June 7, 2016, with the creation of the James H. Purvis Endowment Fund by the Purvis family and friends. The fund was established in memory of their treasured husband, father, grandfather, and great friend, James Purvis. MMF is extremely grateful for the Purvis family and others for their forward-thinking in the establishment of this endowment fund.

James “Jim” Purvis was born in Coleman, Texas, and moved to Midland in 1968 to start his own exploration and production company. Jim was married to his wife, Margaret, for nearly 56 years, and was the proud father of four children and eight grandchildren. Known for his good character and unyielding commitment to his profession, Jim valued his Texas heritage which greatly influenced the way he lived his life.

Jim served his country in the National Guard. He was a 51-year member of the American Association of Petroleum Landmen, and served on a few community boards and committees. When asked what his contribution was to civic and charitable endeavors, he said, “Margaret.” Those who knew Jim will never forget his ability to linger over a good meal, his love of country music, and short stories that were always anything BUT short. He walked proudly in his boots and western hat, wearing a bolo tie. Jim was a truly gifted artist, and often expressed his love of Texas and family vacations through his paintings.

Beginning their philanthropic contributions to MMF over 35 years ago, Jim and Margaret have always been compassionate leaders of supporting quality healthcare to all members of the Midland community and surrounding areas. Through their generosity, the Purvis family has significantly impacted MMH’s ability to continually progress in the ever-changing healthcare industry by ensuring state-of-the-art medical facilities, highly trained staff, and advanced medical equipment are available at our hospital.

The Purvis family has contributed to numerous funds at Midland Memorial Foundation, including the Endowment Fund and the Campaign for Tomorrow Building Fund. In 2013, when MMH was in need of a critical monitoring system, the Purvis family helped facilitate raising the funds to meet this need. MMF truly values the Purvis family’s commitment to the success of Midland Memorial Hospital.

Once matured, the unrestricted James H. Purvis Endowment Fund will contribute to the annual endowment gift from the foundation to MMH, which provides state-of-the-art medical necessities for our patients. It is because of thoughtful donors like the Purvis family, their friends, and you that the MMF endowment continues to grow.

Midland Memorial Foundation Welcomes New Executive Director Nancy Woodman

Midland Memorial Foundation is pleased to announce Nancy Woodman as the new executive director of the foundation. Nancy is a longtime Midlander, who is very familiar with our community's outstanding history of philanthropic generosity, and eager to help facilitate the foundation's efforts in supporting MMH's mission of providing quality healthcare to our patients. She brings a wide array of experience from her time serving as the director of the capital campaign for Bynum School in Midland, and her tenure as senior vice president and national sales manager for Tanner Companies.

Nancy worked closely with the former MMF Executive Director, Tricia Jowell Michie, previously and during the transition period. Upon Tricia's retirement on June 1, 2016, she said that she is confident in Midland Memorial's choice for the executive director position. Tricia stated, "Nancy is an incredible leader and exactly the right person to carry out the efforts of the foundation."

Midland Memorial Foundation is extremely grateful for Tricia's dedication to the success of MMF over the last five and a half years. We applaud her accomplishments of increasing the number of named endowment funds and the overall MMF Endowment Fund total. Tricia was an excellent steward of transforming donors' goals and wishes into a reality of providing state-of-the-art medical necessities and outstanding healthcare for our patients at Midland Memorial Hospital.

Welcome aboard, Nancy!
